

MUAP 2281 Indiv Instr Voice

Instructor:

Santana, Priscilla

Contact Information:

Office: MAMPAC Room 3531

E-mail: priscilla.santana@templejc.edu

Office hours: By Appointment

Catalogue Description

The purpose of individual private lessons is to,advance the technical and musical skill of the,individual performer through the study and,performance of vocal literature and technique. The,semester's literature will be selected after an,individual needs assessment is made, during which,the student's performance level will be,determined.,Required minimum assignments will be determined by,each instructor.

Term:

Fall 2022

Format of Term:

16 week

End of Course Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- learn and demonstrate understanding of healthy vocal technique using standard vocal repertoire.
- develop knowledge of standard vocal repertoire in the various languages used by composers.
- learn proper responsibility for practicing and preparation of repertoire.

Learning Resources:

No textbook required.

Evaluation System:GRADES

Non-Music Majors- 80% Attendance, 10% Preparation, 10% Journal Entries

Music & Musical Theatre Majors- 80% Attendance/Journal/Preparation, 10% Final Jury, 10% Recital Performance for music majors, 10% Attendance of dance and studio class for musical theatre majors

Course Schedule/Topics

Course topics and schedules will depend on the progress of each individual student.

Marketable Skills

Critical Thinking

- Creative thinking
- Inquiry and analysis
- Evaluation and synthesis of information
- Generate ideas
- Set realistic goals
- Set priorities

Communication Skills

- Speaking effectively with individuals
- Listening
- Expressing ideas

Empirical and Quantitative Skills

- Goal setting
- Computer literacy
- Extracting important information
- Identify appropriate information sources
- Analyze information
- Detail oriented

Social Responsibility

- Intercultural competence
- Knowledge of civic responsibility
- Community development
- Cultural arts development

Personal Responsibility

- Flexibility
- Schedule/coordinate operations
- Take initiative
- Work without supervision

- Finish projects on time
- Follow instructions
- Time management